

Small Group Questions

Week of Sunday, March 10th, 2024

Think about this in light of the two study questions:

* Under the direction of the Spirit it is our responsibility to evaluate how we are best fitted to help fulfill the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20). The Commission is not just a calling for a few, but a mandate for all Christ-followers.

* Remember ordinary people, you and me, with all our problems, faults, stubborn habits and weaknesses, can be involved in God's mission. This is so because it is not really about our abilities to do things for God, it is about His ability to work in and through us to share the Gospel and make disciples among the nations.

Study Questions:

1. Dorcas used her skill to meet the needs of people in her community. What talent, skill, passion or material resource do you have that can be used to meet needs in GBC, your community, state and our world? How, when, where and with whom can you get started?

2. Peter's prejudice was deep, however, it was slowly being dealt with by the Holy Spirit. Is the Spirit showing you a bias or prejudice that you have toward a family, an area of your city, state, or a nation/s? How can you cooperate with the Spirit in bringing down your bias or prejudice?
